Hebrews Chapter 3

And so, dear brothers and sisters who belong to God and are partners with those called to heaven, think carefully about this Jesus whom we declare to be God's messenger and High Priest. <sup>1</sup>For he was faithful to God, who appointed him, just as Moses served faithfully when he was entrusted with God's entire house.

<sup>2</sup>But Jesus deserves far more glory than Moses, just as a person who builds a house deserves more praise than the house itself. <sup>3</sup>For every house has a builder, but the one who built everything is God.

<sup>4</sup>Moses was certainly faithful in God's house as a servant. His work was an illustration of the truth God would reveal later: "But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God's entire house. And we are God's house, if we keep our courage and remain confident in our hope in Christ.

<sup>5</sup>That is why the Holy Spirit warns,

<sup>6</sup>Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts, as Israel did when they rebelled, when they tested me in the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup>Then your ancestors tested and tried my patience, even though they saw my miracles for forty years.

<sup>8</sup>So I was angry with them, and I said, "Their hearts always turn away from me. They refuse to do what I tell them."

<sup>9</sup>So my anger took an oath: "They will never enter my place of rest!"

<sup>10</sup>Be careful then, dear brothers and sisters. Make sure that your own hearts are not evil and unbelieving, turning you away from the living God. <sup>11</sup>You must warn each other every day, while it is still "today," so that none of you will be deemed by sin and hardened against God. <sup>12</sup>For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ. <sup>13</sup>Remember what it says:

"Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled."

<sup>14</sup>And who was it who rebelled against God, even though they heard his voice? Wasn't it the people Moses led out of Egypt? <sup>15</sup>And who made God angry for forty years? Wasn't it the people who sinned, whose corpses lay in the wilderness? <sup>16</sup>And to whom was God speaking when he took an oath that they would never enter his rest? Wasn't it the people who disobeyed him? <sup>17</sup>As we see that because of their unbelief they were not able to enter his rest.

Hebrews Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup> And so, dear brothers and sisters... think carefully about this Jesus...

<sup>8</sup> don't harden your hearts

<sup>18</sup> To whom was God speaking when he took an oath that they would never enter his rest?... the people who disobeyed him?

And so, dear brothers and sisters, think carefully about this Jesus,... don't harden your hearts.

don't harden your hearts

And so, dear brothers and sisters, think carefully about this Jesus,... don't harden your hearts.
