In summary, in Jesus' day...

- Infant girls were killed
- Women were owned
- Women could not inherit
- Women had no independence
- Their words were considered irrelevant
- They could not easily be single
- Nor could they divorce a man, but were easily divorced

1 Corinthians 14:34-35
(NRSV)

of other prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said. ³⁴If a revelation is made to someone else sitting nearby, let the first person be silent. ³⁵For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn, and all be encouraged. ³⁶And the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets. ³⁷For God is a God not of disorder but of peace. (As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁸women should be silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be subordinate, as the law also says. ³⁹If there is anything they desire to know, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church. ⁴⁰Or did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only ones to have received it?) ⁴¹Anyone who claims to be a prophet, or to have spiritual powers, must acknowledge that what I am writing to you is a command of the Lord. ⁴²Anyone who does not recognize this is not to be recognized. ⁴³So, my friends, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues; ⁴⁴but all things should be done decently and in order.

15 Now I should remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received. [I think, which you in turn received.] ¹⁶Other ancient authorities put [I think] ¹⁷in parentheses.

g Other ancient authorities put verses 34-35 after verse 40
